REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record does not particularly disclose, teach, or suggest, as per claim 12, a new computer core having an interface to communicate with other cores, such that at least one of the interface signal carriers, that is configurable at compilation, is selectively physically present in the interface or not physically present; as per claim 16, a core on a system on a chip having an interface, such that a first interface signal carrier of the plurality of interface signal carriers is configurable, at compilation, to support different levels of functionality for the interface; and as per claim 19, a method for generating at compilation a core interface for a system on a chip to enable re-use of the core with a different interface configuration, the method comprising generating the core interface for the system on a chip from the configurable source code representative of the core interface and the identified parameters of the core interface configurable in accordance with the defined configuration parameters of the core interface.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Leigh Marie Garbowski whose telephone number is 571-272-1893. The examiner can normally be reached on days.
